

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S MONTH ON THE MOVE

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Sue McKenzie Dicks
Rogers Behavior Health
Vice President, Healthy Culture

As vice president of healthy culture, Sue McKenzie Dicks, MA, provides oversight of equity, diversity and inclusion work and other workplace culture initiatives. She has more than 35 years of experience developing health education programs and training teachers and community leaders to effectively address mental health challenges and reduce stigma. Dicks earned a bachelor's degree from Utah State University and a master's degree in education from Union Seminary.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Michelle Kalz
Rogers Behavior Health
Vice President, Business Development and Admissions

Michelle Kalz, MHA, oversees business development and admissions for the System with the goal of connecting patients to care that will help them reach their full potential for health and well-being. She has more than 25 years of business development, marketing, admissions, and leadership experience. Kalz has a master's degree in healthcare administration from Webster University and a bachelor's degree in corporate communications from Lindenwood University.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Barbara Whitstone
Rogers Behavior Health
Vice President of Facilities

As vice president of facilities, Barbara Whitstone supports the day-to-day operations and is responsible for the development and implementation of new strategies for environmental services and housekeeping. Whitstone has more than 30 years' experience in facility management, operations, and business development. She has a bachelor's degree in biology from Ripon College.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Dawn Krautkramer
Rogers Behavior Health
General Counsel

Dawn Krautkramer, JD, has over 25 years' experience providing in-house and external legal services to a variety of healthcare and insurance entities. As general counsel, she advises the Rogers System and hospital boards and oversees all legal matters, including network and payor contracting, compliance and regulatory matters, litigation, and employment law. She earned her law degree from Marquette University Law School and a bachelor's in political science and journalism from Carroll University.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Rachel Leonard
Rogers Behavior Health
Executive Director of Clinical Strategy

Rachel Leonard, PhD, is a licensed clinical psychologist and executive director of clinical strategy. She specializes in behavioral activation and other cognitive behavioral-based interventions for mood, anxiety and obsessive-compulsive disorder. Dr. Leonard has a doctorate in clinical psychology from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and completed a doctoral internship at the Indiana University School of Medicine and a post-doctoral fellowship at Rogers.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Anne Ballentine
Rogers Behavior Health
Vice President, Marketing and Communications

As vice president of Marketing and Communications, Anne Ballentine oversees marketing, communication and community engagement to heighten awareness of the health system's services and fight against stigma related to mental illness and addiction. Ballentine holds a bachelor's degree in communication from DePauw University and serves on the Milwaukee YMCA and Camp Minikani Boards of Directors.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Terri Cohn
Rogers Behavior Health
Chief Nursing Officer

Terri Cohn, MSN, RN, is chief nursing officer, overseeing nursing services for inpatient, residential, and outpatient levels of care in Wisconsin and in 20 nationwide communities. Cohn joined Rogers as director of nursing in Oconomowoc before becoming executive director of nursing, where she aligned nursing practices across Southeast Wisconsin. She holds a master's degree in nursing administration and has more than 35 years of experience.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Joanne Horvath
Rogers Behavior Health
Chief Financial Officer

Joanne Horvath, CPA, MBA, is chief financial officer, providing financial leadership and oversight for hospital operations, strategic financial planning, capital resources, and investment management. With 20 years in healthcare finance leadership, she is passionate about healthcare, organizational development, and mentorship. She has a Master of Business Administration and bachelor's degree in finance from University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and a bachelor's in accounting from Lakeland University.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Barbara Brockmeier
Rogers Behavior Health
Interim Chief Operating Officer

Barbara Brockmeier, MSW, serves as interim chief operating officer, overseeing inpatient services for Rogers' three hospitals in Brown Deer, Oconomowoc, and West Allis. She has more than 22 years of experience working within the behavioral health field; 18 of which are in senior leadership, program development, and operations management. Brockmeier earned her master's and bachelor's degrees in social work from the University of Michigan.

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

MENTAL HEALTH CARE

Kelly Piacsek
Rogers Behavior Health
Vice President, Research

Kelly Piacsek, PhD, vice president of Research, established Rogers Research Center, where she and her team oversee research strategy and operations across the System. Dr. Piacsek holds a PhD in biomedical engineering from Marquette University, and she is a graduate of the Marquette-Medical College of Wisconsin joint PhD Program in functional imaging. She is a champion for young women pursuing science and technology careers.

