

Resources for humanitarian support

Below you'll find a range of resources capturing a variety of concerns so that Rogers employees can choose those that best fit with your personal values and our mission.

Razom – Together we are Ukraine \(razomforukraine.org\) is an organization that has compiled information for vetted projects to support Ukraine. Some of the websites listed at @RazomForUkraine | Linktree include:

- Project C.U.R.E. \(4agc.com\) to support hospitals in Ukraine as they struggle to tend to the hundreds of casualties amassed over the last week.
- Nova Ukraine has several current projects, and people can choose to donate to a specific project or to the organization in general
  - o Medical Supplies for Wounded Soldiers – Nova Ukraine
  - o Heart2Heart – Humanitarian Aid – Nova Ukraine
- Голоси дітей \(voices.org.ua\) does have an English translation on the website (top right corner) and works to support children in Ukraine recover from the trauma of war.

Additional verified sources shared by NBC:

- Ukraine Crisis - Global Empowerment Mission
  - o Set up at the Poland/Ukraine border in Medyka, GEM is collecting donations to fund tickets for refugees crossing the border to get to their families in other parts of Europe
- World Central Kitchen | Fearing for their safety, thousands of families flee Ukraine \(wck.org\)
  - o Providing food for refugees fleeing the country in multiple border cities around Ukraine and its neighbors
  - o Providing food for restaurants in Lviv (western Ukraine) and Odessa (port city on the Black Sea that has been hit with missiles)
- Ukraine Crisis Relief Fund - GlobalGiving
- Ukraine Crisis Children's Relief Fund - Save the Children
- UKRAINE CRISIS | International Committee of the Red Cross \(icrc.org\)

Thank you to Kalyna Melnyk, a child and adolescent family therapist in Hinsdale, who compiled these resources. Her grandparents immigrated to the U.S. during WWII, and she grew up here with deep Ukrainian roots.